

“Human Rights and Civil Rights: A History of Affirmative Action”

a lecture by

ELEANOR HOLMES NORTON

PROFESSOR OF LAW, GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER

Tuesday, February 7, 1984, at 8 p.m.
Fine Arts Center/Main Theatre

Professor Norton's experience as Chair of the New York City Commission on Human Rights (1970-1977) and Chair of the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (1977-1981) form the basis for her lecture on the history of the ongoing struggle to make human rights and civil rights a reality in this country. In addition to her government assignments, Ms. Norton has served as Assistant Legal Director of the American Civil Liberties Union (1965-1970). A graduate of Yale University Law School, Professor Norton is a dynamic speaker with a wide ranging expertise in all aspects of human rights policy. She is co-author of Sex Discrimination and The Law: Causes and Remedies, a text used in many American law schools and colleges.

1983-1984 University Distinguished Lecture Series

Sponsored by The Office of the Provost and Newsday

This lecture is being co-sponsored by:
The Africana Studies Program, Department of History, Women's Studies Program and Office of Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT
Stony Brook