

Wolfie Seawolf

Stony Brook, NY | (516) 555-5555 | wolfie.seawolf@stonybrook.edu | LinkedIn.com/in/wolfie-seawolf

KEY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Hardworking college student with 2+ years of experience in mentoring and supporting fellow students
- Coordinator of workshops/events and activities open to 200+ students on average
- Active leader with strong abilities with high standards of culturally competent care for patients with diverse needs

EDUCATION

Stony Brook University

Stony Brook, NY

Bachelor of Science in Health Science

Expected May 2024

Minor in Health, Medicine and Society

Sigma Beta Honor Society | University Scholars Honors | GPA: 3.68

HEALTHCARE EXPERIENCE

Dr. Michele Kim, MD

New York, NY

Medical Office Assistant

June 2021 - Present

- Triage and process messages from patients, front office staff, referring physicians and pharmacies to physician
- Assess and evaluate 15+ patients per day by obtaining vitals, explain health procedures, and perform drug screenings
- Attend to 25+ patients a day at the front desk, take phone calls and relay information to doctors and nurses

Center for Prevention and Outreach, Stony Brook University

Stony Brook, NY

Red Watch Band Intern

August 2021 – May 2021

- Informed campus community of signs and symptoms of alcohol and drug overdoses and provide students with awareness to prevent such incidents from occurring
- Collected and configured data into Excel from surveys distributed to over 300 undergraduate students assessing their knowledge on mental health among adolescence
- Collaborated with 2 other interns to conduct research that focuses on veterans and alcohol & drug abuse

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Stony Brook University Hospital

Stony Brook, NY

Volunteer – Acute Pain Division

August 2021 – Present

- Provide compassionate 1:1 patient care by offering pillows, water, and emotional support
- Facilitate food consumption for patients with medical needs, fed those who were unable & aided others
- Assist physician in preparing and conducting office procedures including sterilizing tools and equipment

Stony Brook University Food Pantry

Stony Brook, NY

Volunteer

October 2020 - Present

- Assort, organize and package food for equal distribution
- Maintain a clean and orderly work environment to ensure food preparation codes are met
- Build relationships by engaging in tactful and positive dialogue with food pantry clients

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Music and Medicine, Stony Brook University, NY

Stony Brook, NY

General Member

Aug. 2021 – Present

- Perform music therapy with volunteers at hospitals intensive care unit
- Engage members in song selection and spread positive joy to patients

Pre-Nursing Society, Stony Brook University, NY

Stony Brook, NY

General Member

Aug. 2021 – Present

- Participate in weekly meetings and events which include hospital open house events, Narcan training, and blood drives

SKILLS

- Certifications: American Heart Association CPR & AED, Narcan training certified, QPR Suicide Prevention, HIPAA
- Computer: Proficient in Microsoft Word, PowerPoint & Excel, Adobe InDesign