

Health Sciences Library Virtual Tour

Jamie Saragossi: Head of the Health Sciences Library
Jessica Koos: Health Sciences Librarian

About Us

- The mission of the Health Sciences Library is to provide the quality resources and excellent service needed to support the educational, research, and clinical activities of the Stony Brook University Health Sciences community.
 - Serve 5 schools in the Health Sciences, affiliate programs, research centers, and all clinical areas.
- Work closely with community partners via public libraries and school systems, support from NNLM.
- Global Library Initiatives, Visiting Scholar Program.

Our Team

Team of 5 Health Sciences
Librarians (L - R)

Gregg Stevens
Laurel Scheinfeld
Jamie Saragossi
Michael Huang
Jessica Koos

Welcome to the HSL

Exhibit Space - Dental Instruments Past and Present

Service Desk

Access & User Services

-Staffed by
River Amin
Christopher Larson
Christian Bernard Wood
Lori Ciemielewski

Various student staff
throughout the semester

Reserve and “other” collections

Common Area

Collection & Quiet Study Room

Health Sciences Archive

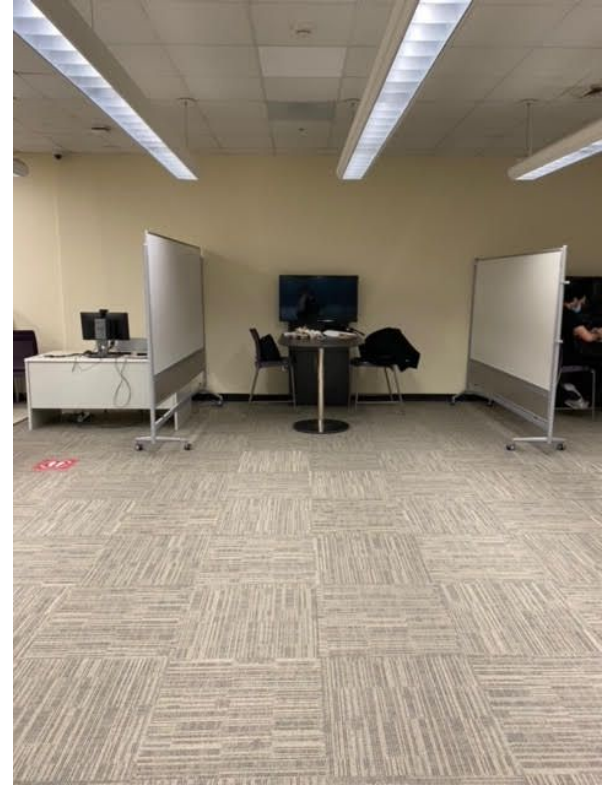

- Coller Papers
- Historical Medical Texts
 - Ongoing assessment project
- Institutional Publications
 - Course bulletins
 - Yearbooks

Collaboration Stations

- Solstice Technology
- Semi-private work spaces
- Charging Stations within the tables
- White boards for group or individual work

SINC Site

Computer Classrooms

Summary

Try to meet the needs of various user groups in one space

Our team is the heart of our operation:

Access Services

Librarian consultations

Mix of digital and physical collections to meet the research needs of our users.

Questions & Contacts

Questions?

Jamie Saragossi, Head of the Health Sciences Library, Liaison to the School of Dental Medicine

jamie.saragossi@stonybrook.edu